Though a host of men be laid against me, Yet shall not my heart be afraid;
And though there rose up war against me, Yet will I put my trust in Him.
Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; Have mercy upon me and hear me:

ORGAN RECITAL

On Sunday afternoon, October 1, at 4:00 o'clock, Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel. The program follows:

Henry Purcell (1659-1695) — Trumpet Voluntary

This work was written by Purcell when he was organist at Westminster Abbey. It has been revised and edited by Mr. E. Power Biggs.

Paul Hindemith (1895-) — First Sonata in E flat minor

I. Moderately fast—Lively.

II. Very slow—Fantasy, free—With quiet motion.

Many modern composers have turned to the organ today. They have become interested in the revival of the contrapuntal style of Bach and his predecessors. Among them is Paul Hindemith, whose three organ sonatas reveal a chamber music quality equivalent to the Bach trio sonatas in beauty of form, and expressiveness. Although not indicated, this sonata could be divided into three movements; the first moderately fast, the second very slow snd the third a fantasy which closes in quiet mood.

Max Reger (1873-1916) Introduction and Passacaglia

Reger contributed much to the organ literature of the present day, although he did not have the great interest in baroque music which is now a decided trend of the modern composers. In spite of his romantic style, Reger's music is quite logical in form and his harmonies worthy of careful listening.

This true passacaglia, with its ground bass and interesting variations, builds to a great climax, interweaving intricate harmonies with the pedal theme which always maintains its original serenity.

Louis Vierne (1870-1937) 24 Pieces en style libre
11. Divertissemente

Vierne was the blind organist of Notre Dame for thirty-seven years. His collection of 24 Pieces presents varied and interesting short sketches in every major and minor key. The Divertissemente is a little scherzo expressing the French daintiness and charm.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
Chorale-Prelude
"Now Comes the Saviour of the Gentiles"

Collected and revised (and in some cases composed) during the last years of Bach's life, the Eighteen Chorale Preludes show this side of his art at its best. The poignancy expressed in this work has not been surpassed in melodic content.

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata and Fugue in D minor

This popular work was written near the beginning of Bach's maturity, and was doubtless used as a concert piece.

It is interesting to note how carefully Bach has tied the lively toccata to the fugue, forming contrasting parts, yet returning several times to the mood of his opeuing bars and ending in the same spirit with which he opened.

The next recital in the Duke University Chapel will be on Sunday afternoon, October 22, at 4:00 o'clock by Dr. Fritz Heitmann, world famous organist of the Lutheran Cathedral, Berlin, Germany. This will be sponsored by Duke University and the North Carolina chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Professor Dédéyan is one of a group of distinguished younger men in French university life, and is well known for his two-volume work, Montaigne chez ses amis Anglo-Saxons, 1760-1900, published in 1946. FRITZ HEITMANN

Dr. Fritz Heitmann, world famous organist of the Cathedral, Berlin, Germany, and Professor of Organ in the Berliner Hochschule für Musik, will give an organ recital Sunday afternoon, October 22, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. This will be sponsored by Duke University and the North Carolina Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. Following is the program:

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor

Bach uses the theme of an earlier French organist, Andrè Raison, in building his Passacaglia, which contalns twenty variations. The triple fugue which follows is so clearly defined that all three voices can be heard as they are developed together. The theme of the Passacaglia is one of the voices in the fugue.

Johann Sebastian Bach Chorale Preludes
He Who Puts His Trust in God
My Heart Is Filled with Longing
Wake, Awake, a Voice Is Calling

The chorale prelude runs through the whole of Bach's artistic life. At the age of eighteen he wrote chorale variations, and one of his last acts as a creative musician was to dictate to his son-in-law a chorale prelude on the hymn, "With This I Come Before Thy Throne."

The melodies of these preludes are all based on chorales or hymns. They are presented in such great variety of structural form that one might say Bach brought the chorale prelude to its highest artistic development. As organ music takes its rightful place in the church service, the chorale prelude has been the greatest contribution of old and new masters or organ composition.

Johann Sebastian Bach

Organ Concerto in D minor (after Vivaldi)
Allegro, Fugue, Largo, Allegro

Six of the 12 Concerti Grossi written for orchestra by Vivaldi were arranged by Bach, four as clavier concertos and two for the organ. The present concerto in D minor is No. 11 in the series. For many years this concerto was incorrectly attributed to the pen of Bach's eldest son, Wilhelm Friedemann. It has recently been proven to be the work of J. S. Bach, and has been published by Peters and H. W. Gray.

Ernst Pepping (1901-)

Chorale Preludes
Today the Beloved Christians Sing
This Most Glorious Day Has Dawned

Ernst Pepping is a contemporary German composer who has written a collection of organ chorale preludes. They are contained in three volumes; one using the old Easter chorale melodies, a second developing the Christmas hymn tunes, and a third for Advent. Pepping's music is pleasing to the ear upon first hearing. His style is light and clearly enunciated.

Max Reger (1873-1916) Fantasy on the Chorale
Wake, Awake, a Voice Is Calling

The theme Wake, Awake, a Voice Is Calling is the same melody which Bach used in the chorale prelude played today. Reger entered the music field following the romanticists. He turned the tide of organ music in another direction by using more polyphony and more massive construction of sound in his compositions, than his immediate predecessors. His greater works, such as the Fantasy, have seldom heen heard in this country.

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present the next recital in the Duke University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, November 5, at 4:00 o'clock. This will be in connection with the annual observance of Homecoming.

He wakes the sun from his nigbt-curtain's slumber; O man, adore the King of kings!
What pow'r and splendor, what wisdom and order,
In Nature's mighty plan unroll'd.
Thro' space and time, to infinity's border, What wonders vast and manifold.
The earth is his, and the beav'ns o'er it bending; The Maker in his works behold.
He is and will be, thro' ages unending, A God of strength and love untold.
The heav'ns are his, and all Earth knows his favor,
His pow'r in all things thou dost see,

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital Sunday afternoon, November 5, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

The program will be as follows:

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)
Prelude, Fugue and Chacoune in C major

This work has heen compared with the C Major Prelude and Fugue of Bach. We know that Bach drew much inspiration from the works of Buxtehude. The North German style of writing presented a great variety of rhythm and form in various movements because the organs of this period did not permit much change in registration.

ietrich Buxtehude Chaconne in E minor

The chaconne is an old dance in triple time, the music of which is a series of variations over a ground bass. The E minor chaconne begins quietly and develops in beautiful and romantic style.

hann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
Prelude and Fugue in A minor

This, one of the greatest of all Preludes and Fugues, brings this form of composition to its grandest and most extended development. It is one of Bach's most brilliant and dramatic pieces.

eo Sowerby (1895-) Carillon

Leo Sowerby, who lives in Chicago, is one of our foremost American composers.

The Carillon opens quietly with slightly dissonant harmonies. Soon, soft bells are heard in a secondary theme, while the original melody is repeated in the ringing of chimes.

obert Schumann (1822-1890) Sketch in C major

Schumann left two sets of Sketches and Studies for the pedal piano or organ. These have been used successfully many times as program pieces.

ulian Nesbitt From Hebrid Seas Celtic Suite
1. Sea Croon
3. Sea Surge
4. Sea Plaint

Neshitt, who is a contemporary Scotch composer, was organist at Oban in Argyllshire. Oban is the gateway to the Islands of the West Coast of Scotland.

In the Celtic Suite he describes the country where he lived. The first and last piece have melodies which are based on Scottish folk tunes.

ynnwood Farnam (1885-1930) Toccata on "Filii et Filiae"

This Toccata is the only composition which the great organist and teacher left. The theme in the pedals is an old chorale melody.

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer. Why so disquieted?
He who clothes the lilies fair, Marks the sparrows' fall,
Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.
Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful, Have we forgotten our Saviour reigns?
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?
God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.

Anthem—For All Who Watch — Dickinson

Soloists: Mr. Robert Lewis, Tenor; Mrs. H. E. Myers, Contralto; Miss Paddy Ann Wilson, Soprano; Mr. Robert Chambers, Bass.

For all who watch tonight, By land, or sea or air, O Father, may they know that Thou Art with them even there.
For all who weep tonight, The hearts that cannot rest, Reveal Thy love, that wondrous love, Which gave for us Thy Best.
For all who wake tonight, Love's tender watch to keep, Watcher divine, Thyself draw nigh, Thou who dost never sleep.
For all who fear tonight, What e'er the dread may be, We ask for them the perfect peace, Of hearts that rest in Thee.
Our own beloved tonight, O Father, keep, and where Our Love and succour cannot reach,
Now bless them thro' our prayer.

The Lord is good, His tender mercies are over all His works.

Hearts unfold like flow'rs before Thee Praising Thee their sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.
All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heav'ns reflect Thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around Thee, Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blooming meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in Thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of loving, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine:
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
Mortals join the mighty chorus, Which the morning stars began,
Father love is reigning o'er us, Brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward In the triumph song of life.

ffertory Anthem—Great Is Jehovah Schubert

Soloist: Miss Betty Lou Matheson

Great is Jehovah, the Lord, The earth and the heavens bear witness to His might!
'Tis heard in the blasts of the storm. In the roar of the loud thundering stream.
'Tis heard in rustling leaves on the green forest branches, Seen in the fields rich with golden grain, In flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn.
'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven,
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll. And flames in the Lightning's swift and death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might, The Lord God Almighty.
When to heav'n thou dost pray, Imploring grace and compassion, Great is Jehovah, the Lord.

And they were come from far to see The Child of God in Galilee,
They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white!
Ah! As on the hills of Galilee A star once flamed to guide the Three,
They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix will give an organ recital of Christmas music Sunday afternoon, December 3, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. Following is the program:

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Chorale-Preludes

O Hail This Brightest Day of Days
Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring

The first chorale is found in the Liturgical Year Book. It was written for use during the Christmas season in the Lutheran church. This hymn, as developed by Bach, expresses the true joy of the Christmastide.

The second chorale is taken from the Birthday Cantata No. 147.

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

How Brightly Shines the Morning Star

Many composers have written music for Nicolai's poem, "How Brightly Shines the Morning Star." It is the best known of the Epiphany hymns. The variations by Buxtehude on the melody, also attributed to Nicolai, are famous for their imaginative quality. One can almost see the star shining in various portions of this work.

Franz Josef Haydn (1732-1809) The Musical Clocks

E. Power Biggs, who arranged these pieces for organ states that they were written in 1792 for a famous clock in Vienna. They were played automatically on a small flute organ, operated by the clock mechanism.

Johann Sebastian Bach Fantasia in G Major

The Fantasia opens with twenty-eight bars of bravura for the manuals. It is followed by a five voice Grave which contains some fine polyphony. The mounting bars near the close of the Grave gives an early hint of a modern effect. The Fantasia ends with a long cadenza.

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Behold, A Rose Breaks Into Bloom

Brahms wrote the Eleven Chorale Preludes for Organ during the last summer of his life. Biographers agree that he composed them in memory of his most faithful friend, Clara Schumann. Behold, A Rose Breaks Into Bloom is an old Christmas melody of the 16th century which was harmonized by Praetorius in 1609.

Richard Purvis Carol Rhapsody

Three familiar Christmas carols, Silent Night, It Came Upon a Midnight Clear, and O Come, All Ye Faithful, are developed with variety and charm in this work. Richard Purvis is organist and choir master at Grace Church in San Francisco.

Garth Edmundson Toccata on Von Himmel Hoch

This toccata is the last numher in the Christmas Suite No. 2 by Edmundson. The chorale melody "From Heaven Above to Earth I Come" is found in the pedals until the climax is reached in the finale of the hymn which is played fortissimo upon manuals and pedals.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—They Sang That Night in Bethlehem Schubert-Dett
Jesus' mother rocked her baby gently, Singing sweetly in the night, alone;
Guarding angels watched intently, Singing Gloria in harmonious tone.
Kings and shepherds heard from far the singing, Saw the star light pointing them the way;
All their presents gladly bringing, They discovered where the Christ child lay.
Then they, kneeling, gazed in adoration As the infant gently slumbered there,
Saw in Jesus their salvation: Then their singing filled the crystal air.

Hymn—O Little Town of Bethlehem (St. Louis) Redner

Scripture—Luke 2:8-20

Offertory Anthem—Bethlehem Night Arthur Warren
Sung the last song in Bethlehem, The last cup drained deep;
The revellers in Bethlehem Fell heavily asleep.
And no one wakes in Bethlehem Upon a starry night,
Upon a sound in Bethlehem Of camel bells at night.
Of lowly shepherds lilting A little air so sweet,
Of the Babe at Mary's bosom, The Kings at Mary's feet.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Reverend Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Nowell! Sing we clear!
Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.
To Bethlem did they go, The Shepherds three:
To see whe'r it were so or no,
Whether Christ were born or no, to set men free.
Masters, in this hall, Hear ye news today
Brought over sea, And ever you I pray.
Then to Bethlem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place
Heard the oxen low.
Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May,
Upon the straw she lay.
And a little child On her arm had she "Wot ye who is this?" Said the hinds to me.
Ox and ass him know—kneeling on their knee:
Wondrous joy had I—This little Babe to see.
This is Christ the Lord, Masters be ye glad!
Christmas is come in, And no folk should be sad.

ORGAN RECITAL

Rudolf Kremer, organist and choir director at t. Martin of Tours, in Philadelphia, will give an rgan recital in the University Chapel Sunday after- on, January 7, at 4:00 o'clock. Mr. Kremer has udied under Biggs, Weinrich, Ernest White and ritz Heitmann and is regarded as one of the most romising young organists in the country today.

Following is his program:

ivier Messiaen Third Movement from the "Ascension" (Outburst of Joy from a Soul Before the Glory of Christ)

Messiaen is regarded by many as the most promising of the younger French composers. In the Outburst of Joy tbe two main rhythmic and melodic motives are announced, first on the manuals and then in the pedals. These are repeated from time to time and finally combined to give an expression of the utmost exuberance.

an Langlais The Nativity

The Nativity has four sections: the crib, the angels, the shepherds, and the Holy Family. This composition creates a very peaceful atmosphere.

ohann Sebastian Bach Come Holy Ghost (Fantasy)

One would consider this a true fantasy which contains great sweep and motion.

ohann Sebastian Bach O Lamb of God

This work is modelled after the Agnus Dei of the Mass. The three sections, each a different expression of the theme, are easily discernible.

ohann Sebastian Bach Andante from Sonata IV

Bach wrote six trio sonatas for his son Friedemann. The Andante from the Fourth Sonata is described as a wonderfully liquid piece of motion.

ohann Sebastian Bach Prelude and Fugue in F minor

This is one of tbe great preludes and fugues. The fugue is a magnificent example of five part writing.

ohannes Brahms Chorale-Prelude Blessed Are Ye Faithful Spirits

Brahms wrote eleven chorale preludes in the last summer of bis life. Blessed Are Ye Faithful Spirits is a tender but powerful setting of the chorale.

Iarcel Dupre Cortege and Litanie

This is Lynnwood Farnam's arrangement of the work. It becomes bigger and bigger, climaxing with the joining of the Cortege theme with that of the Litany.

Five bleeding wounds he bears, Received on Calvary: They pour effectual pray'rs, They strongly plead for me:
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry, "nor let that ransomed sinner die."
The Father hears him pray, His dear anointed One

Largo from the Concerto in D Minor — Vivaldi

Call to Worship—Lead Us, Heavenly Father — Quilter
Soloist: Dr. J. H. Phillips, Tenor

Lead us, Heavenly Father, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, For we have no help but thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.
Amen.

Hymn—Praise the Lord! Ye Heavens, Adore Him (Hyfrydol) — Prichard

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Peace I Leave With You — Roberts
Soloist: Mr. Henry Markot, Tenor

Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you.
Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
Because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
But be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Hymn—Judge Eternal, Throned in Splendor
(Cwm Rhondda) — Welsh Hymn Melody

Scripture—Colossians 1:9-14

Offertory Anthem—Arise, O Lord — Hoffmeister-Deis

Arise, O Lord, let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight,
And the wicked be turned into hell, even the nations that forgot God.
Put them in fear, O Lord: let the nations know themselves be but men.
For they that know thy name will put their trust in thee.
And thou, Lord, wilt not forsake them.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Tamest of Passions" — Dr. Paul Scherer
Union Theological Seminary
New York, New York

Benediction

Response by Choir—God Be in My Head Davies

God be in my head, And in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes, And in my looking;
God be in my mouth, And in my speaking;

God be at mine end, And at my departing.

Organ—Chorale—Improvisation — Karg-Elert
Praise to the Lord — Karg-Elert
Rhosymedre — Vaughan-Williams

Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) — Max Spicker

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord, the Lord of hosts.
The heav'ns and the earth are full of His glory.

Hymn—When Morning Gilds the Skies (Landes Domini) — Barnby

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Brother James' Air (Marosa) — Jacob

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want
He makes me down to lie in pastures green,
He leadeth me The quiet waters by.
My soul He doth restore again
And me to walk doth make Within tbe Paths of Blessedness, E'en for His own Name's sake.
Yea, though I pass thro' shadowed vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, And Thy Rod and Staff me comfort still.
My table Thou hast furnished In presence of my foes;
My head with oil Thou dost anoint, And my cup overflows.
Goodness and mercy all my days will surely follow me;
And in my Father's heart alway My dwelling place shall be.

Hymn—Rock of Ages (Toplady) — Hastings

Scriptnre—John 15:18-27 — Diane Lee

Offertory Anthem—Onward, Ye Peoples! — Sibelius-Lefebvre

Onward, ye peoples, strive for the Light!
The Light that the Lord hath given us for our guide,
Who through murk and darkness of night
Hath led us in safety unto our reward.
See how the fiery pillar is gleaming, Lighting our steps, when dark is the way.
And the Light of the World, cleaveth the gloomy blackness of night that else would engulf us.
See the pillar, safe when the sun would blister us.
Then forward, where faith revealeth the way!
For God is our guide, and He will never fail.
Fires are gleaming, voices are singing forth from Mount Neboh's heavenstorming height.
Salem! Salem! Hark, they call us upward and on, to our Fatber's home.
Salem! Salem! on the borizon, urging us on to God and our home;
And the heavenly choir doth ring from Mount Neboh, piercing the blue like a living light.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the Duke University Chapel Sunday afternoon, May 6, at 4:00 o'clock. Her program will consist of selections from the work of Johann Sebastian Bach.

Following is the program:

Prelude in D Major — Weimar Period

The D Major Prelude and Fugue were usually regarded as separate works, being found together only in a manuscript belonging to Nicolai. The Prelude opens with a slow scale passage clearly defining the key in which it is written. In the alla breve which follows, Bach produces a gay figure written in simple sequence. This figure, which is repeated in various voices, hardly prepares one for the adagio at the close of the prelude. The adagio is an interlude of great depth of feeling and thoughtful use of dissonance.

Magnificat — From Six Schübler Chorale-Preludes

The chorale-prelude runs through the whole of Bach's artistic life. Bach was asked by one of his publishers, Schübler, to transcribe these six chorale-preludes from his cantatas. They remain as small gems of organ literature.

O Thou of God the Father — From the Orgelbüchlein

In this chorale-prelude the motive is given to the pedal, in which it appears throughout. The contrapuntal play of the voices in the alto and tenor assist in supporting the atmosphere of the bass figure.

Now Comes the Saviour of the Gentiles
From The Great Eighteen Chorale Preludes

Collected and revised (and in some cases composed) during the last years of Bach's life, the Eighteen Chorale Preludes show this side of his art at its best. The poignancy expressed in this work has not been surpassed in melodic content.

Little Fugue in G minor — Early Weimar Period

This is sometimes called the "short" G minor fugue. It is one of the most popular of all Bach's works and is full of youthful high spirits and gaiety.

My Heart is Filled with Longing
From the Miscellaneous Chorale Preludes

Bach used this beautiful melody many times. It is found in various keys as a chorale in the Passion according to St. Matthew. As an organ solo, Bach has treated it with simplicity and exquisite taste.

Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor — Second Weimar Period

The theme of the Passacaglia was borrowed from a "Trio en Passacaille" by André Raison, a French composer c. 1650-1720. Bach's use of this theme contains twenty variations. The double fugue which follows is so clearly defined that all voices can be heard as they are developed together. The theme of the Passacaglia is one of the voices of the fugue. In this celebrated masterpiece, Bach shows that the most complex structure is yet a vehicle for intense emotional expression.

The next organ recital by Mrs. Hendrix will be on Commencement Sunday, June 3, at 4:30 p.m. in the University Chapel.

DR. A. J. WALTON, Presiding Minister

Organ—Introspection Frederick Stanley Smith
Contemplation Frederick Stanley Smith

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud.
Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on,
Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to every day:
To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—Onward, Christian Soldiers! (St. Gertrude) Sullivan

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Come Unto Me Ye Weary Frederick Stanley Smith

"Come unto Me, ye weary, And I will give you rest."
O blessed voice of Jesus, Which comes to hearts opprest!
It tells of benediction, Of pardon, grace, and peace,
Of joy that hath no ending, Of love that cannot cease.
"Come unto Me, ye fainting, And I will give you life."
O cheering voice of Jesus, Which comes to aid our strife!
The foe is stern and eager, The fight is fierce and long;
But Thou hast made us mighty, And stronger than the strong.
"And whosoever cometh, I will not cast him out."
O welcome voice of Jesus, Which drives away our doubt!
Which calls us, very sinners, Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless, To come, O Lord, to Thee. Amen.

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—In the Year That King Uzziah Died David McK. Williams

In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high, and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.
Above it stood the seraphim: each one had six wings;
With twain he covered his face, with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.
And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.
And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.
Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.
Then flew one of the seraphim, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar;
And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin is purged.
Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?
Then said I, Here am I, send me.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Flag and the Cross" Dr. Frank S. Hickman
Preacher to the University

Prayer—(Congregation seated)

Hymn—Eternal Father, Strong to Save (Melita) Dykes

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace.
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Finale from First Sonata Frederick Stanley Smith
